GREAT LAKES

TRADE SUMMIT

KAMPALA JULY 13-15
2017

THE SUMMIT

Kampala will play host to the Great Lakes Trade Summit, a gathering of pro-market advocates from Europe, East Africa, and beyond. The Summit will explore the vast opportunities for greater trade and investment in the region; and make the ethical case for free trade as a means of poverty alleviation, conflict resolution and social justice.

At a time when globalisation is being contested by an organised anti-market movement, the Great Lakes Trade Summit will offer a platform for those dedicated to making a positive case for the alternative: a popular conservatism that works for the individual, not the corporates.

This Summit is an initiative of the Alliance of Conservatives and Reformists in Europe (ACRE), who recognise that the European Union's protectionist trade policies have often stunted the ability of others to add value. This needs to change. Following the Brexit vote, the time is ripe for reform, toward a Europe that advances global free trade with confidence..

THE OPPORTUNITIES

With high-level politicians, businesses and think-tanks present, participants will be in excellent company to explore trade opportunities and shape reforms. At this conference, organizations will be more than just participants, they will be an integral part of the event: pioneering debates, organizing fringe events and connecting with traders and policy makers.

The Great Lakes Trade Summit will offer unique platforms for organisations wishing to widen their audience. The Speke Resort Munyonyo is a premier venue situated on the shores of Lake Victoria, and will host several high quality opportunities for publicity and commercial exposure. For more information, see our sponsor packages overleaf.

Join us as a sponsor of the Great Lakes Trade Summit to help make the ethical case for free trade. Together, we will argue for free markets as the ultimate instrument of poverty alleviation, conflict resolution and social justice.
